The festival is intended to create a welcoming gathering place where people from different backgrounds can meet, celebrate one another's traditions, share food, and discover the common ground that connects us all.

"This festival is about recognizing the incredible diversity of Española while remembering that we have much more in common than we sometimes realize."

– GURUBACHAN KHALSA

The Sikh community of Española is organizing the event as an expression of seva—selfless service—and community fellowship, welcoming people of every background to come together in the spirit of friendship and respect.
